MOST PICTURESQUE MAN IN ILLINOIS POLITICS IS FREED

Fred Lundin, Under Trial With Others on Charge of Conspiracy to Defraud Chicago Schools, Acquitted by Jury Friday—Hearings Had Been Under Way Since June 4

CHICAGO, July 13.—While a surging crowd of court room spectators staged a noisy demonstration, Fred Lundin, picturesque figure in Illinois politics, was acquitted by a jury today of conspiracy to defraud Chicago schools of nearly $1,000,000.

With the former congressman and political associate of former Mayor William Hale Thompson were acquitted fifteen co-defendants including Edwin S. Davis, former president of the school board under the Thompson administration, and Albert Severinghaus, former vice president of the board.

The jury which had been hearing the case since June 4, rendered its verdict after deliberating a little over four and one-half hours. Despite warnings from the bench there was a subdued cheer as the first verdict of "not guilty" was read but it died quickly under the glare of Judge Charles A. McDonald.

The nervous crowd pressed closer as the clerk read the verdicts acquitting one after another of the defendants.

CHIROPRACTORS IN SPRINGFIELD SUFFER ARREST

Warrants Issued Under New Law Effective July 1

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 13.—Three Springfield chiropractors were arrested today on warrants sworn out by the state department of education and registration as a test of the new medical practices act which became effective July 1.

The new law provides for the licensing of non-medical practitioners by a board of examiners. It was charged in the warrants that the defendants had not taken out a license in compliance with the law.

The three chiropractors were arraigned before a justice of the peace and gave bond of $300 for their appearance.

The state department of registration announced the arrests were the first in a rigid enforcement of the new regulations.

Others to Follow

According to Dr. J. W. Dugger, a chiropractor and chief lobbyist for the chiropractors against the medical practices bill when it was before the legislature, today's arrests are the forerunner of prosecutions to be instituted through the state against chiropractors.

The chiropractors sought the passage of a separate bill authorizing them to practice in this state under special regulations, this measure was defeated. They also requested Governor Small to veto the medical practices act on the ground that it violated the constitution of the United States.

WOMAN ACQUITTED IN POISONING CASE

NEWARK, N. J., July 13.—Mrs. Mary P. Creighton, on trial here for the alleged poisoning of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Annie Creighton more than two years ago, was acquitted by a jury tonight after four hours deliberation.

As the foreman pronounced the words "not guilty," Mrs. Creighton collapsed, but was revived in a few minutes.

The streets outside the court house were filled with a large crowd waiting for Mrs. Creighton to leave the building.

A BROKEN RAIL CAUSES WRECK OF FAST TRAIN

One Killed, Many are Hurt—Illinois Man Aboard

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 13.—A broken rail officials believe caused the wreck of the Memphis special, southern railway's New York today near Larkinsville, Ala., with the death of one person and injury of two score when four Pullman cars and two day coaches were whipped from the track and overturned while rounding a curve at 45 miles an hour.

H. L. Carr, 18, of Durham, N. C., was crushed to death in the crash, twelve injured persons were hurried for treatment to a hospital at Huntsville, Ala., and 23 other passengers with minor injuries with others who escaped unhurt reached Memphis late today on a special relief train.

Steel Cars Save Life

Steel structure of the train cars is credited with preventing a heavy loss of life, according to train men who declared that wooded cars hurled from the rails at such speed would have been demolished with the death of many occupants.

Medical attention was quickly given the injured by physicians who rushed to the scene from Larkinsville, Scottsboro, and Huntsville, Ala., and by W. H. Geer, the railroad company's surgeon, a passenger on the train. The wreck occurred shortly after 1 o'clock this morning, according to occupants of the derailed cars who reached here this afternoon. They were flung from their berths as the Pullman's whirled sidelong down a six foot embankment passengers on the side within the curve being precipitated into compartments across the aisle. Few cries of distress were heard but the crashing of windows and the tearing of screens marked efforts of passengers to struggle upward and out of the wreckage.

Evangelist Sings

A tenor voice, strong and clear, coming from one of the wrecked cars poured forth above the confusion the strains of the old negro melody.

"Nobody Knows What Trouble I Seen."

The owner of the voice which has moved thousands in religious meetings throughout the country, presently was discovered to be the noted evangelist, Charlie Butler of Springfield, Ill., who presently emerged thru his window unhurt.

A spirit of cheerful acceptance of the situation at once appeared to take charge and passengers laughed and joked as they aided their more unfortunate companions to dig themselves out.

A "roll call" by berths soon established the fact that few were seriously hurt and none missing. Carr who received fatal injuries was believed to have been riding on the vestibule of one of the coaches derailed.

CHICAGO, July 13.—To give the authorities further time to investigate the inquest in the death of Elsie Campbell, 25 year old waitress, who jumped to her death from an apartment occupied by students last night, was continued today until July 31.

The four students held for questioning in connection with the case, stuck to their stories throughout the day, maintaining that the girl had accompanied one of the youths to their apartment and that when left alone at one of the rooms at the apartment she had disrobed and leaped out clad only in a bathrobe belonging to one of the boys.

TO UNIONIZE ALL STEEL INDUSTRIES

WAUKEGAN, Ill., July 13.—Recent announcement of an attempt to unionize all steel industries, brought first action here today when organizers arrived to organize 1600 men in the American Steel & Wire Mill, one of the United Steel Corporation's biggest plants in the Great Lakes district, a six months strike here three years ago resulted in the union losing strength.

Only Verdict Possible

Attorneys for the defense in statements asserted that the jury brought in the only verdict it could according to the evidence.

DEATH OF CHILD BRINGS INDICTMENT

Chicago, July 13.—Raymond C. Knowles was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of a four year old child who was crushed against the curb by an automobile driven by Knowles. His bonds were fixed at $25,000.

Man Eating Sharks Frighten Bathers

NEW YORK, July 13.—A school of sand sharks and porpoises appeared just beyond the safety ropes on the beach at Coney Island today and caused a rush for safety of several hundred bathers, most of them women and children.

Charles Townsend, director of the New York aquarium, said he did not believe there were any man-eating sharks in the group as that variety "doesn't come to these waters more than once a generation."

In 1917 man eating sharks invaded beaches along the New Jersey coast and killed several bathers.

SOMMERVILLE SANE IS TESTIMONY OF PHYSICIANS CALLED

Preparing Instructions to Jury in "Fixing" Case

WAUKEGAN, July 13.—With all the evidence in preparation of instructions to the jury began today in the conspiracy trial of John B. Fields, Eddie Kaufman and Eddie Courtney, alleged to have corrupted the trial jury which acquitted Governor Small here in June, 1922.

The conclusions of the testimony came abruptly today after the state had called for doctors to the stand to give testimony as to the mental condition of Thomas E. Sommerville, one of the state's chief witnesses, who was said in defense testimony to be insane.

Sommerville Sane

Three local physicians told the jury today they believed Sommerville sane, a fourth rebuttal witness for the state, Dr. Clarence R. Neymann, former superintendent of the Cook county psychopathic hospital and widely known specialist in mental and nervous diseases, testified he believed Sommerville somewhat backward, but not feeble-minded or insane.

Sommerville was again called to the stand to tell of his commitment to the Elgin State Hospital in 1920 and of his recent examination by Dr. William O. Krohn, defense alienist witness who declared Sommerville insane for the past six years.

Physicians' Testimony

The four doctors testified today that there was nothing in medical science to enable one to determine how long a patient may have been insane prior to any examination.

Dr. Krohn talked to him only two or three minutes in making his examination, Sommerville declared.

Similar testimony was given by R. E. Jette, a private detective, who has been accompanying Sommerville, at the order of the state's attorney, A. V. Smith, since the present trial began.

Dr. Neymann was not cross examined by the defense.

The state will make its argument Monday.

Plans of Defense

According to the present plans of the defense counsel, they will make no closing statement, but merely submit their case to the jury with the instructions of the court—without denial of the state's charges in evidence and without argument.

There was no rebuttal testimony by the defense.

Both sides tonight expressed satisfaction with their case in evidence. The state counsel pointed out that the charges in the indictment have not been denied by the defendants. The defense attorneys saw victory in the view that the state's case as vitiated by the attack on Sommerville's sanity, and on the reputation of William J. Riley, Antioch saloon-keeper and second important state witnesses whom numerous defense witnesses testified they would not believe under oath.

The case will probably go to the jury Tuesday.

INQUEST IS BEGUN IN DEATH OF BOY FOUND MURDERED

Body Found Under Pile of Hay Last Sunday

JOLIET, Ill., July 13.—The inquest into the death of Frank Muren, 20 year old Rockdale youth whose body was found under a pile of hay last Sunday morning was opened here today and four men were questioned. The investigation is uncompleted and will be resumed next Monday morning.

Carl Bilsland and Charles Wright, who have been held as suspects in the case since Sunday were questioned at length, but gave no testimony of a startling nature. The two men who claimed they were together at a river camp on the night of the slaying gave conflicting testimony today as to the time they visited different places about the village and the coroner will continue questioning them next Monday.

Doctor Testifies

Dr. W. B. Buys, testified that Muren was bound and gagged either immediately after he was slain or immediately before he died, because he said he died from a blow on the head instead of from strangulation as was first supposed.

Bilsland and Wright today clung to their former statements that they knew nothing of the slaying but Sheriff Walker and Coroner Kingslow said they believed they can give information that will show light on the slaying and will demand further explanation next Monday.

MRS BERGDOLL WANTS TO VISIT GERMANY

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll filed an application in the federal district court today for a passport to Germany to see her son Grover C. Bergdoll, fugitive draft evader. The application was sent to the state department at Washington and if granted Mrs. Bergdoll plans to sail from New York next Tuesday.

Greaver is living in Switzerland at present and spends most of his time in the Alps, Mrs. Bergdoll said.

The alien property custodian's property belonging to Greaver valued at nearly $1,000,000. It was seized after his flight from the country.

THREE BRAKEMEN KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

Aberdeen, S. D., July 13.—John Larson, address unknown, was instantly killed and Fred Alton, Butte, Mont., and Ted McAvoy, Des Moines, were seriously injured and seven others were reported missing when 14 cars of an extra freight train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway were hurled into the ditch one mile west of Alamo this afternoon, according to advices received by the railroad here.

HARDING PARTY VISIT INTERIOR ALASKA POINTS

Will Travel Over Government built Road to Fairbanks

SEWARD, Alaska, July 213.—After skirting the coast of South-eastern Alaska for a hundred miles President Harding, Mrs. Harding and the members of their party landed here at 1 o'clock this afternoon to take the Alaska railroad built by the government to Fairbanks, the commerce center of interior Alaska.

The presidential travelers and their companions came ashore from the transport Henderson, on which they left Skagway, Alaska, Wednesday and steamed across the Gulf of Alaska.

They will spend the night at Anchorage, a hundred miles north of here on the Alaska railroad.

Plans of the president after visiting Fairbanks, nearly 500 miles in the interior, were uncertain tonight. It was believed that at least some members of the party would go over the Richardson Highway in automobiles to Chitina, the interior terminus of the Copper River and Northwestern Railway, a trip planned for the President and then considered by some of his advisers to be too severe.

WANT OPEN DOOR AND OPPORTUNITY EQUAL TO NATIONS

United States Continues Efforts Over Near East Treaty

LAUSANNE, July 13.—Joseph C. Grew, representative of the United States continued tonight his efforts to have the Near East treaty conform to the principles of the open door and equal opportunity for all nations. He interviewed Ismet Pasha the Turkish spokesman and the chiefs of the other delegations.

A general effort is being made to rescue the Near East conference from what admittedly is an exceedingly serious situation. The Turks say they object to the optional rights for British and French companies stipulated in the draft of the protocol on concessions as inimical to Turkish sovereignty and liable to jeopardize Turkey's economic future. The American representatives want the rights eliminated altogether or modified in accordance with the American view.

Turkish Concessions

The Turkish Petroleum company's concession over which there has been some difference of opinion chiefly affects the Mosul oil fields. The question of the sovereignty of Mosul which England claims is part of her mandate Iraq territory has been left by the treaty to private negotiations between the British and Turkish governments, but if no agreement is reached within nine months the question will be submitted to the league of nations.

The United States claiming the Turkish petroleum concession is invalid has negotiated in vain for three years to secure arbitration of the question and pending solution objects to any alleged rights of the company being ratified by the Lausanne treaty. Tonight the conference stood with a disagreement between the allies and the Turks both on concessions and the question of withdrawal of allied warships from Turkish waters.

TWO KILLED FALLING FROM LOADS OF HAY

ROCKFORD, Ill., July 13.—One man is dead, another is dying as the result of accidents almost identical in detail in two widely separated parts of Winnebago county. Both fell from loads of hay and both suffered broken necks.

Frank J. Carlson, 70, Kingston, is dead.

William A. Monks, member of the Winnebago county board, and a Harrison township farmer, may live, physicians said here tonight. His body is paralyzed however and if he lives he will be a helpless cripple. Monks is conscious and able to talk to his family.

U. S. INTEREST IN REPARATION POLICY

LONDON, July 13.—(By The A. P.)—The question raised yesterday in the House of Commons by Ramsay MacDonald, the opposition leader, and Commander Kenworthy, Liberal member for Hull, concerning the extent to which the United States was actively concerned in the formation of a new reparations policy by the British government remained unanswered when the commons rose from its sitting.

MANY HOMELESS AS FOREST FIRES RAGE IN MONTANA TOWNS

Fear Felt for Tourists in Yellowstone Highway—More Than Thousand Persons Reported Homeless—Property Loss Nearly Half Million—Miners Help Fight Fire

SPOKANE, Wash., July 13.—The mining towns of Mace and Burke, east of Kellogg, Idaho, are reported destroyed by forest fires sweeping up the western slope of the Bitter Root Mountains. Wire communication with the fire-swept district is down. Fear is felt for the lives of tourists on the Yellowstone Trail Highway, which is understood from meager reports, to be in the path of the flames.

A thousand persons are reported homeless in the two towns.

Mace is destroyed. The business section of Burke is in flames and little hope is held of saving what remains of the town. Loss up to 4 P. M. was estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000 and the progress of the fire is said to be unchecked. Attempts to block the fire by dynamiting homes, business houses and mine structures proved futile because of the high wind.

With the business section of Burke completely gone and a large portion of the residence section burning, fire fighting efforts centered a short distance up the canyon from Burke where the large hotel of the Hercules Mining company, together with the miners' recreation center was threatened.

All miners of the rich silver Lead Mines of the district estimated at several thousand have turned to fighting fire.

I was reported that all the exterior workings of the Hecla Mine one of the large lead-silver mines of the world have gone. The machine shop was blasted. The other workings burned. The Tunker Hill-Sullivan said to be the largest lead-silver mine in the world and the Hercules of comparable importance are in the district. They are protected by divisions of the canyon however and are not immediately threatened.

Report Miners Trapped

A report was circulated that the miners of the Hecla Mine had been trapped by the burning of the exterior workings. It was later asserted that all had been removed in safety.

Two hundred school children took refuge in the Catholic church at Mace when the wind first swept the flames thru the town. When blasting failed to stop the fastest spread of the fire the children were forced to flee the church as it started to burn above their heads. The children were under the care of a priest who maintained discipline. None was hurt.

Two theories are advanced as to the cause of the fire: one is that a spark from a passing locomotive fired a building near the tracks and the other attributes it to an overheated chimney.

GRAIN EXPERT EXPLAINS WHY WHEAT IS LOW

Is Due to Misunderstandings and Too Much Politics

CHICAGO, July 13.—George E. Marcy, president of the Armour Grain Company, said today regarding the wheat situation:

"The United States has only a reasonable carry over of wheat and the balance of the world nothing extraordinary, especially at present values. In my opinion, the sick wheat market is caused by two things—first, too many extravagant statements being made by people regarding available supplies and crops, people who make these statements without explaining the whole situation, namely that there are hundreds of millions of people who must use wheat and that it is the cheapest of any food. Such statements have a tendency to disturb confidence in values.

"The other reason is bringing politics into the practical handling of the enormous five thousand million bushels or over of grain raised in the United States. To a very great extent the political attack made against exchanges has frightened speculation out of the market. Former conditions would find speculative investment buyers buying grain futures on a large scale and very little thought given to any great surplus at these prices.

UNIVERSITY HEAD STRONGLY CENSURED

CHICAGO, July 13.—David P. Kinley, president of the University of Illinois today was censured by the American Teachers Federation meeting here for "perpetual opposition, discrimination and even slander" against membership of Local 42 of the Federation at Urbana, Illinois.

In the resolution passed by the federation, President Kinley is charged with forcing the resignation of the more active members of the local until the local as an organization scarcely exists. Mrs. Allen Gregory Allen, delegate of the Urbana local, made charges which caused the passage of the resolution. She recently withdrew from the University Press as it was about to be printed a biography of her father, John Milton Gregory, first president of the university. Mrs. Allen charged today this was done in protest against President Kinley's administration.

Wouldn't it be well for Senator Brookhart and other radicals who have been so sure that the measures they introduced for the benefit of agriculture, to come forward now and explain why these laws are not benefiting the farmer. Co-operative marketing has been made easier, the grain and livestock exchanges have been properly "regulated" by the action of congress and now we have the spectacle of wheat prices that are below the cost of production and pork prices that are entirely out of line with corn.

Senator Capper and Senator Brookhart et al. should use and explain.

Morgan county citizens who are familiar with the public health work which is being carried on in the county with Dr. R. V. Brokaw as county health officer, are insistent that this work shall continue notwithstanding the fact that there is a likelihood that state aid will be withdrawn.

The last general assembly reduced the appropriation of the health department to less than one-third of that previously available, and Mayor Crabtree and the county commissioners have been informally notified that the state aid cannot be given here.

Ordinarily where state aid is withdrawn the Rockefeller Foundation also withdraws its support. However, an earnest effort is to be made to secure the continued co-operation of the Foundation so that the health work which is just getting well under way can be continued.

The forces for public health work have just been partially coordinated and a large amount of constructive work has been done. The program if carried out eventually will mean not only the conservation of public health and improvement in sanitary conditions, but also actual money saving for the county and the city.

TALE OF A WAYSIDE INN.

All Americans interested in the preserving of early landmarks will appreciate the action of Henry Ford in buying the Wayside Inn of South Sudbury, Mass., with the intention of turning it into a historical museum. The famous hotel was built in 1657, and is surprisingly well preserved. It testifies to the fine craftsmanship as well as the generous spirit of a bygone age. Many generations have admired its spaciousness, comfort and rugged strength, along with its memories. It has housed Washington, Lafayette and scores of other heroes whose names are woven into our national history. It is immortalized in the poems of Longfellow; but that is no reason for allowing the material building to disappear. The assured preservation of such a shrine is a welcome public service.

NOISELESS STREET CARS.

What are said to be the first noiseless street cars in the world have been put into service by the Twin City Rapid Transit Co., operating in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

The mechanical difference between them and the usual noisy type of car is not great. It consists in improved trucks provided with roller bearings. Those bearings make not only quiet running but easy riding, just as similar bearings do in automobiles, on roller skates or anywhere else—a fact which would hardly seem to have needed demonstration.

Likewise it is not at all surprising to learn that the new trucks, by eliminating friction, save 12 to 15 per cent of the power. People everywhere ought to be interested in this new adaptation of a very familiar principle to a type of vehicle that has long needed it. And why not apply it to railroad cars, too?

Noise always means waste of power. Physicians say it means waste of nervous power and engineers say it means waste of mechanical power. Yet a surprising amount of it persists.

STUDYING THE PHILIPPINES.

Anyone who feels the urge to write a history about the Philippines should act at once. It is said that there is now an unprecedented demand for authoritative textbooks dealing with the life and customs, the history and the proposed independence of the Philippine Islands.

The independence commission itself is preparing a handbook setting forth glowingly the natural assets of the islands and the attractive opportunities open to American capital.

It is expected that the question of Philippine independence will be raised in the next United States Congress. The sudden demand for literature on that subject and allied topics is the result.

It is interesting to note that publishers evidently anticipate a general demand for these books. In these days politicians and interested officials are not the only ones who study up on such matters. The whole public to a greater extent than formerly, turns its attention to the problems in hand. It is a growing tendency of intelligent citizenship that carries much fair promise for the future.

KLANSMEN MET AT PUMPING STATION

Several Auto Loads of Citizens Out to See White-robed Ku Klux and to Hear Lecture—Meeting Held in Mauvaisterre Park

It is understood that an open meeting of the Ku Klux Klan was held last night at the north end of Mauvaisterre park, not far from the city pumping station. About a dozen auto loads of people attended the meeting. Only a few of the Klansmen were masked, and it appeared that one of those in costume took up most of the time with a lecture. A few curious citizens ventured near enough to hear what was said, and they reported that the speaker declared that the Klan would soon have organizations for both sexes and all ages in good running shape. There appeared to be no ceremonies connected with the gathering, and nothing of great importance took place.

ASKS ACCEPTANCE OF HUGHES PROPOSAL

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 13.—Unusual interest was evinced in diplomatic circles here today in a cablegram quoting in part a communication to the London Times, signed by Lord Birkenhead, former Lord High Chancellor of England, strongly urging that the British government accept Secretary Hughes' proposal for a treaty agreement which would permit the movement of sealed liquor stores in American territorial waters and the search and seizure of suspected rum running craft up to the 12 mile limit. While comment on Lord Birkenhead's argument was withheld when the message was referred to state department officials, it was obvious that they viewed it with great interest.

When officials were informed that a clot in the gasoline feed pipe had made the landing necessary and that the plane was in good condition they approved the second attempt Maughn declared.

A Hartford Farm Policy Covers Cattle

Many farmers have yet to learn of the soundness of a farm insurance policy.

It covers all farm buildings, household goods, provisions, fuel and personal effects, grain, seeds, hay, straw and fodder, all kinds of stock feed, farm tools, implements and machinery, harness and similar equipment, vehicles, horses, mules, cattle, sheep and hogs against the hazards of fire, lightning, tornadoes, cyclones and windstorms.

You may also buy protection against hailstorms in connection with the above liberal coverage.

FIGHT ANYBODY, AT ANY TIME, AND ANY PLACE

This is Firpo's Come-Back to all Promoters' Proposals

NEW YORK, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Luis Angel Firpo tireless battler of the Argentine, who added ponderous and aged Jess Willard to his victims last night before a record crowd at Boyle's Thirty Acres, today was looking for more pugilistic worlds to conquer. A series of conferences, however, during the day failed to bring any nearer his prospective title match with Jack Dempsey, and indications pointed to the probability that Firpo, admittedly still lacking in the finer points of ring science would have one or two more testing matches before he gets a shot at the title.

As a matter of fact, Firpo, in the course of a long talk with Tex Rickard this afternoon at Madison Square Garden, expressed a desire to fight Harry Wills. New Orleans negro who has stood out as a title challenger for more than a year before meeting Dempsey. The sombre South American, bearing no outward marks of the conflict in which he crushed the comeback hopes of the former champion last night, laconically added that he was ready to fight anybody, any time, any place.

Rickard also conferred at some length with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's pilot, but said that he had no definite match in sight right now, he hopes to put on another heavyweight show either as a further elimination or for the title around Labor Day at Boyle's Thirty Acres.

Rickard has Firpo under an ironclad contract for a title match with Dempsey but under its terms a bout with the champion may be arranged any time before March, 1924, or later if the agreement is extended.

This contract was signed when Rickard brought Firpo back from the Argentine last winter to box Bill Brennan.

Signature to Obtain.

Rickard must obtain Dempsey's and Kearns' signatures before binding the fight, but the latter said today the champion would be ready to face Firpo whenever satisfactory terms were offered.

The promoter admitted incidentally, that he had practically abandoned all idea of staging a championship match between Dempsey and Firpo in the latter's native city, Buenos Aires.

"I think we have the best site for that match right across the river," the promoter said.

Rickard, as well as other New York promoters, including those having boxing concessions at the Polo Grounds and Yankee Stadium, are likely to bid for a Willis-Firpo match. Firpo's contract with Rickard does not bar him from accepting offers for matches with fighters other than Dempsey.

Attendance Thursday.

Paid admissions to the Willard-Firpo fight totaled 75,712 official check by revenue men at Jersey City revealed late today, but Rickard stuck to his last night's statement that the entire crowd numbered at least 100,000.

Even so the paid attendance established a new record for a prize fight exceeding by the narrow margin of 384 the paid admissions for the Dempsey-Carpentier spectacle two years ago.

Receipts $420,920.70.

The difference of about 25,000 between the paid attendance and Rickard's figures was accounted for the fact that gate-keepers were unable to hold back the storm of thousands at the last minute.

Besides these "gate crashers," he said there were thousands of policemen, firemen, ushers, and other officials whose presence did not register in the box office.

Total receipts amounted to $429,920.70 which with the reduction of the federal tax was reduced to $390,837.00. Willard's share of the net receipts 30 per cent, amount to $117,000 while Firpo's share, 22 per cent, was $85,000.

It develops today that both Firpo and Willard went into the battle handicapped by sprained left arms due to training mishaps. This was pointed out by both fighters in explanation of their apparent inability to do much damage with their lefts.

TOO MANY MINERS IN COAL INDUSTRY

This is Opinion of Matthew Brennan Long on Coal Business—Predicts This is Last Year of High Fuel Prices.

Matthew Brennan of Lincoln Ill., is in the city to visit his brothers, Joseph F. and John and families. Mr. Brennan for years had charge of the North coal mine near Lincoln and is well qualified to speak on the coal question and being not connected with the business at present is able to speak without hesitation.

To a Journal reporter he said in substance:

"I look for this to be the last year of high prices for coal. The cold hard fact is there are far too many mines and miners in the country. So far operators and miners have been able to hold hard, fast agreements and have kept up prices and a surplus of mines in operation.

"A small number of the great coal corporations in the state with superior facilities for raising from five thousand to ten thousand tons of coal a day could easily supply the entire needs of the state without anything from the smaller mines. As the great flour mills in Minnesota, Kansas and other localities put so many small mills out of business so will the great mining concerns cause the closing of the mines working at greater cost per ton.

Already there are indications of disintegration in the combine, several mines drawing out and selling below regular prices, and while it will not come all at once I think the artificial maintenance of prices will not continue past the coming winter.

"To give you an idea of the scale on which some coal companies work I will mention the picnic recently given near Springfield to the dealers or local distributors of the Peabody mines and their families. Three thousand people were present and everything was absolutely free. Allowing five to a family which is certainly enough, there must have been six hundred retail dealers present.

"The mine with which I was connected in Lincoln was bought by the A. L. Brewerton combination. They are now giving a dollar a ton off to all consumers who will buy during the slack time so as to keep the mines going.

"Many mines can't stop without serious loss. The north mine in Lincoln had a bad top and it was important to keep it going all the time else the cost of clearing out after a stoppage would be great. If a man fills his cellar in the summer he should throw over the coal a liberal quantity of strong salt solution. This will serve as a coating to the coal and preserve its value as a heating material very greatly.

"I predict the next demand of the miners will be for a six hour day with no reduction in wages. They must do something to get more work or else quit the business and go at something else.

"When I had charge of the north mine one great trouble was to get men to work the full eight hours. They could make eight dollars a day in four to six hours and sometimes we would almost go down on our knees to them to work longer and get out the coal which people wanted so much. They were very independent about it though and we had hard work often to supply the demand owing to that cause.

M. F. DUNLAP HEADS NEW HOTEL BOARD

H. M. Capps is Vice-President and Harold Welch Secretary. Treasurer—Directors Held Organization Meeting Last Night—Ask for Site Proposals.

If you own a site which you think is suitable for the new Jacksonville hotel, the directors of the hotel company will be pleased to have you submit the particulars. Such was the statement made last night when directors of the hotel company met for organization and conference.

Officers for the new organization were chosen at the meeting last night. M. F. Dunlap was named president, H. M. Capps vice president and Harold Welch secretary. Following this action the board held an extended session, discussing in an informal way matters relating to the hotel project.

It was the unanimous view of the directors that little can be done until a site has been chosen and it is for this reason that the board now invites property owners to submit proposals.

The directors made it plain that for the present prices named in the proposals will be considered confidential, although the public will be advised of the different sites proposed. Not until a site has been at least tentatively selected will it be worth while to employ an architect, for plans cannot be prepared until the architect knows the dimensions of the site.

Another fact made plain by the directors last night was that there is no intention of calling for the payment of pledges until nearer the time when actual construction work is to begin and payments will be needed for the contractor. In other words, the directors feel that they can make tentative arrangements for a site purchase, that they can have agreements with an architect and consider plans without the payment of any considerable sum of money.

The reason for such a procedure is found in the fact that under the law a corporation cannot be legally perfected without the payment of 50 per cent of the stock. The directors are of one mind in the wish not to require the payment of stock subscriptions until near the time when the money will be actually needed. This in general is the plan of action mapped out at the conference last night, and it will of course be changed as conditions require.

The chief concern of the directors is evidently to proceed just as speedily as good business judgment suggests and to handle the project in a way that will be the most satisfactory to the hundreds of stockholders and to the public generally.

LITCHFIELD MEN HERE TO INSPECT PLANTS

Representatives of Litchfield Lock Over City Power and Water Plant—Litchfield Plans Water Plant Improvement

George P. O'Brien and H. E. Saathoff, city attorney and water commissioner of Litchfield, were visitors in Jacksonville yesterday. They came for the purpose of looking over the power and water plant and learning some additional facts about the plans in which citizens operated in making plant possible.

Some representatives of Litchfield were here on a like mission a number of months ago. After some difficulty Litchfield has secured possession of its water plant, which was for a time in the hands of a company. It is proposed now to build a large reservoir and to install a new pumping plant and filter. It is estimated that the improvement will cost from $250,000 to $275,000 and a comparatively small part of this sum can be secured thru a bond issue, as the city is not far from its legal bonding limit. It is therefore the expectation of officials and citizens of Litchfield to inaugurate some plan of citizen assistance such as was adopted here so successfully.

It is the plan also to extend the water mains of Litchfield, but this will be done under the public improvement act at the cost of contiguous property. It is understood that while there are mains along most of the Litchfield streets, only about 29 per cent of the residences are connected with the mains.

A campaign will be put on to encourage the use of city water after the supply has been increased and improved thru filtration. The citizens now frankly admit that the water supply is not of a quality to warrant increased consumption.

Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Saathoff were guests of Mayor Crabtree for several hours yesterday and subsequently inspected the power and water plant. They also talked to various citizens about the Jacksonville plan.

PLAN FOR ASPHALT ON SOUTH MAIN

Village of South Jacksonville Will Co-Operate with State in Paving Project.

The board of local improvements of South Jacksonville by S. L. Perry, president, and O. H. Burman, secretary, has issued notice of public hearing for a proposed pavement on South Main street. The hearing to which the property owners have been summoned will be held at the village hall at the Heintz greenhouses at 7 o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, July 24.

It is proposed to pave South Main street from Michigan avenue to the south line of the Van-Allen Road. The state has included South Main street in part of a proposed hard road and the property owners in South Jacksonville have the opportunity of accepting this roadway or approving some other type of pavement, and paying the difference in cost.

At the meeting of property owners the proposal will be considered of constructing asphalt pavement with combined curb and gutter, with the center section of the pavement underneath the car track of brick. The total estimated cost of the proposed improvement is $66,313.28. The specifications for the proposed improvement have been prepared by the Caldwell Engineering Co.

ROTARY CLUB PLANS IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

Will Set Aside $100 Each Year for Development and Improvement of Meredosia (a) House Property—Work With Boys Is Outlined

It is the purpose of the Rotary club as voiced at the luncheon Friday at the Pacific hotel, to set aside several hundred dollars each year for the development and improvement of the Meredosia club house property. This was mentioned by V. R. Riley, one of the members of the club house committee, who made a brief address.

The Friday program was in charge of the club house and boys work committee. F. J. Blackburn is chairman of one committee and Ben Roodhouse chairman of the other.

Frank J. Heintz, who as member of the club house committee has had charge of the schedule for several years, gave figures to show what the demand has been for the club house facilities. When the building has not been in use in the summer it has been because of a conflict of dates, or some sudden change in the plans of organized clubs.

Mr. Heintz told something about the work of Boy Scout organizations and said that a great forward step would be taken in this work when the way is found for the employment of an all time Boy Scout executive.

Ben O. Roodhouse, another of the group of speakers, also emphasized the need of an all time executive. There are not very many men who have the qualifications as scout masters and even then the best results are not attained without training.

John O'Brien, a Boy Scout who has been a member of Troop 10 but two weeks, was introduced by Mr. Roodhouse, repeated the Scout oath and some other points from the ritual that the Scout organization follows.

Then David Green, who has been at Glenwood school all the past year thru Rotary co-operation, was introduced and Mr. Roodhouse spoke of the record made at the school.

The whole program was outlined for the purpose of showing what the club has already done in boys work and in suggesting what can be accomplished in coming days thru the proper co-operative action.

EXCITEMENT REIGNED AT ROODHOUSE DEPOT

An attempt of two young men sometime Thursday night to rob the Altam depot at Roodhouse caused considerable excitement. The thieves were frightened away by the night employees of the road, and fled, though not without leaving fairly accurate descriptions in the minds of observers. A car was taken from a Roodhouse resident during the night, and later found near the outskirts of the city. It is believed that the would-be robbers attempted to make their getaway in the stolen car. Police in surrounding towns were notified, but thus far no trace of the disturbers has been discovered.

Dr. James A. Day will be absent from his Jacksonville office in the Duncan Building until August 8.

BUGGY IS DAMAGED IN RUNAWAY FRIDAY

Friday afternoon a gray horse owned by Frank Brown residing northeast of the city, was hitched in the alley near the Grand laundry, while Mrs. Brown was shopping in the city. He became frightened at a passing steam roller and broke loose, running north through the alley and turning east on East North street. As he turned the corner he was completely thrown but recovered his feet and was finally stopped by a passer-by near the intersection of North East street. The top of the storm buggy to which he was hitched was completely torn off, caused by collision with a telephone pole in the alley.

FEET GROWING LARGER
According to a local shoe merchant human feet are growing larger. Originally, size eight was the largest regular size of ladies shoes but now they are made in all sizes up to and including size ten. This fact comes as quite a shock to milady who finds that it is necessary to accept shoes which show larger sizes than those previously worn, although in almost every case they insist that it does not embarrass them to know that the size is larger, still they are positive that the feet themselves are no larger than formerly, but that there is something radically wrong in the sizing.
